

(/sareth08)

Becca (@sareth08) (/sareth08)

5 August, 2018

This has to be one of the greatest ideas on the planet! We joined a group of other travelers for dinner at the beautiful home of our two lovely local hosts, Anna and Óli. The food was wonderful, the atmosphere was fantastic, and the dinner conversation with our fellow travelers cannot be compared. If I ever see anything like this offered anywhere else, you can bet I'll be signing up! It was an all inclusive price, worth every penny. But next time it might be smarter to leave the car at the hotel and get a taxi! Mari and I called it quits around 11:30 pm, the younger folks kept going! We ran into our table mates the next day, a terribly funny couple from down under, who informed us that we missed being introduced to the puppies, but they hadn't lasted much longer. A truly memorable experience!

